TRAINING SERIES WB-D · STARTING 2027

Pranayama and Meditation (with certificate) with Dr. Shrikrishna B. Tengshe

Dear friends interested in our training series,

We are delighted that we can continue the training series with Dr. Shrikrishna in a new form! The live online seminars have proven to be very intense and effective. That is why Shrikrishna continues to teach even now that his long-distance travels have ended: in online retreats and in person in India.

Something very special is his personal teaching at a powerful place in the Himalayas. If you wish, you can have one-on-one sessions with him there and be closely accompanied on your spiritual path.

Participation requires one of the introductory seminars. It introduces or refreshes the theory and practice of pranayama and meditation and presents the content, structure and requirements of the training series. At the end, both sides decide together whether the training is the right thing at this time.

Alternatively, you can enter the training series through the open retreat in India.

In combination with the subsequent second retreat of the training series, this is a particularly powerful package.

About the Trip to India

Dharamshala

We will experience our retreat with Shrikrishna in a comfortable retreat center in the Himalayas, near Dharamshala, the seat of the Dalai Lama.

The place is safe and clean, the view of the mountain range picturesque, the care warm-hearted, and the food delicious, varied and plentiful – and without any risk of an upset stomach 😉.

In 2026, the cheapest flights from Berlin cost approx. 600–700 euros for the round trip. Flights together can usually be arranged.

Excursions to Dharamshala to the seat of the Dalai Lama as well as to sights and places of power in the surrounding area can optionally be arranged. You will be well looked after before and during the trip, picked up from the airport and brought back there safely.
